

Rule 35. Expenses, costs and fees.

1. Witnesses are entitled to the same fees and mileage allowance as witnesses in civil suits in the district courts, except that:
 - (a) When a respondent is censured or removed, the commission may tax against the respondent the fees and mileage allowances of, and costs of services upon, witnesses ordered by the respondent; and
 - (b) No judge or attorney employed by the State of Nevada or its subdivisions may be allowed any fees for attending as a witness.
